

Wilson College is pleased to announce the 2006 Orr Forum on Religion

Islam in America: Challenges and Opportunities

Featuring the 2006 Orr Lecturer

Dr. Jamillah Karim
of Spelman College

Monday, March 27

Schedule of Events

(All Events other than the Orr Lecture Will Be Held in Warfield Hall)

9:00- am	Registration and Coffee
10:00-11:30	Opening Panel: Images of Islam
11:30-1:00	Lunch (FREE to the First 50 People to Pre-Register)
1:00-2:00	Workshop 1: Images of Muslims in American Media Dr. Peter LaChapelle, Assistant Professor of Mass Communications at Wilson College
2:00-3:00	Workshop 2: The Art of Everyday Objects in Islamic Cultures Dr. Virginia Anderson-Stojanovic, Professor of Classics at Wilson College
3:00-4:00	Workshop 3: Conversations with an American Muslim Samia Malik
4:00-5:00	Workshop 4: How Far We've Come: American Muslims in the 21st Century Dr. Jamillah Karim, Assistant Professor of Religion at Spelman College
5:00-7:30	Dinner (FREE to the First 50 People to Pre-Register)
7:30-8:30	The Orr Lecture: Becoming a Model Community: The Future of American Muslims Dr. Jamillah Karim, Assistant Professor of Religion at Spelman College (Held in Alumnae Chapel in Thomson Hall)

Chambersburg, Pennsylvania

To Pre-Register or learn more visit www.wilson.edu/orrforum

Or contact Dr. David True, Chair of Philosophy and Religion

(717) 264-4141 • dtrue@wilson.edu